DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-20 are pending.

2. Election/Restrictions

Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claim 9 and claims 1-8, 15-20 when W is N, drawn to indazolyl compounds, classified in class 540-548, subclass various, depending on species election. If this group is elected, a further election of a single disclosed species is also required. Further restriction based on the species election may be required.

II. Claims 1-8, 15-20 when W is CR₂, drawn to indolyl compounds, classified in class 540-548, subclass various depending on species election. If this group is elected, a further election of a single disclosed species is also required. Further restriction based on the species election may be required.

III. Claims 10-14, drawn to method of treatment of CNS disorder, classified in class 514, subclass various, depending on species election. If this group is elected a further election of a single disorder being treated by a single disclosed active material is also required. Further restriction based on the species election may be required.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

Invention I and II compounds are independent and distinct because they differ in elements, bonding arrangement and chemical properties to such an extent that unpatentability of one group does not necessarily imply unpatentability of compounds of another group. A reference anticipating compounds of one group would not render compounds of another group obvious. Without a species election, a proper classification can not be assigned and the searches for each species is not coextensive or required for another species.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the groups and/or species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the groups and/or species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention. In the instant case then there could have been no patentability of all the claims over CA 128:102084 see RN 201227-21-6 anticipated compounds of group I when W is N, q is 1, R₁ is alkyl, R is optionally substituted alkenyl, R₅ is optionally substituted alkyl.

Art Unit: 1625

Inventions I-II and III are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the CA 128 reference supra evidenced that compounds anticipating the claims are useful as glycoprotein IIb/IIIa receptor antagonists, i.e. the product as claimed can be used in materially different process.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

3. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Celia Chang whose telephone number is 571-272-0679. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Thursday from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm.
